Frambu 24–25 November 2026

You will meet others with sickle cell disease
Lecturers from Oslo University Hospital
Free course and accommodation
Interpreter

The National Centre for Rare Diseases (Sjeldensenteret), Unit Gaustad, invites you to a course on sickle cell disease. Participation is free of charge.

Who can participate?

Adults diagnosed with sickle cell disease who were born in 2008 or earlier.

A partner/spouse may also participate in the educational programme.

When is the course?

Starts: Tuesday, 24 November 2026 at 09:00

Ends: Wednesday, 25 November 2026 at 15:30

It is possible to arrive at Frambu the day before.

Financial matters

The course and accommodation are free. Travel expenses are covered by Pasientreiser.

Loss of income:

Working participants with the diagnosis may contact their GP to consider sick leave.

Alternatively, you may apply for welfare leave, take a holiday day, or similar.

Partners/spouses of the participants with the diagnosis are not compensated for loss of income. You may, for example, apply to your employer for holiday leave, time off, or welfare leave with or without pay.

What does the course include?

The course will give you the opportunity to learn more about the diagnosis, have your questions addressed, and share experiences with others in a similar situation. The course also helps advisers and doctors at Sjeldensenteret gain more insight into what it is like to live with the condition.

Course topics:

- Information about diagnosis and treatment
- Support and accommodations in everyday life
- Rights related to the disease
- Physical activity and exercise
- Group discussions

The course consists of lectures, discussions, and group-based experience sharing. The programme will cover the topics listed above as well as questions submitted in the application form.

Interpreter

An interpreter will be available for participants who request this in advance.

Where is Frambu located?

The Centre for Rare Disorders, Unit Frambu, is located just outside Oslo.

Address: Sandbakkveien 18, 1404 Siggerud

Evening activities at Frambu

Frambu has a wonderful outdoor area with opportunities for forest walks, and it also has a heated swimming pool.
